Liability for Contents

As service providers, we are liable for our own contents of these websites according to Sec. 7, paragraph 1 German Telemedia Act (TMG). However, according to Sec. 8 to 10 German Telemedia Act (TMG), service providers are not obligated to permanently monitor submitted or stored information or to search for evidence that indicates illegal activities.

Legal obligations to remove information or to block the use of information remain unaffected. In this case, liability is only possible from the time of knowledge about a specific violation of law. Illegal contents will be removed immediately once we become aware of them.

Liability for Links

Our offer includes links to external third-party websites. We have no influence on the contents of those websites and therefore cannot guarantee their accuracy or legality. Providers or administrators of linked websites are always responsible for their own contents.

The linked websites were checked for possible violations of law at the time the links were established. Illegal contents were not detected at the time of linking.

Permanent monitoring of linked websites cannot reasonably be expected without specific indications of a violation of law. Illegal links will be removed immediately once we become aware of them.

Copyright

Contents and compilations published on these websites by the providers are subject to German copyright laws. Reproduction, editing, distribution, or any kind of use outside the scope of copyright law require written permission from the respective author or originator.

Downloads and copies of these websites are permitted for private use only. Commercial use of our contents without permission of the originator is prohibited.

Copyright laws of third parties are respected as long as the contents on these websites do not originate from the provider. Contributions of third parties are indicated as such.

If you notice any violations of copyright law, please inform us. Such contents will be removed immediately once we become aware of them.
